

February is the month of love, and we have a sweetheart deal for you!

Take your loved one(s) out for a meal and earn valuable donation dollars for Family & Community Services of Somerset County (FCS).

Mama Rosina's Restaurant in Bound Brook will donate 20% of your bill (pre-tax) to FCS. It's simple. Just eat at Mama Rosina's any time (lunch or dinner) Sunday, February 12th through Thursday, February 16th (EXCEPT 2/14) and present this flyer to your waiter. That's it. You enjoy a good meal with your loved one(s) while helping FCS raise much-needed dollars.

Mama Rosina's (732-805-3377) is located in the Historic Train Station at 350 East Main Street between Hamilton Street and Mountain Avenue in Bound Brook.

Beat the Valentine's Day crowds at Mama Rosina's by dining on the 13th or 15th.

Contact Ann Sikora, Fund Development Director at FCS with any questions. You may reach her via e-mail at funddevelopment@fcssomerset.org or by phone on Wednesdays and Thursdays at (732) 356-1082, Ext. 11.

Family and Community of Somerset County is a non-profit agency that has been in existence since 1960. Our mission is to enhance the quality of life of individuals, children, families and communities by providing professional family, mental health and addictions services and innovative community-based programs. All counseling and psychiatric services are provided on a sliding scale basis and the majority of the clients have lower fees.
